

A PROPOSAL for raising 200,000l. per Annum, by a small Tax,

To take off the Half-penny a Pot on Beer, which will bring to the Crown 100,000l, per Annum more then the present additional Tax on the Brewery, and when that is taken off will ease the Poor.

~~Every~~ H A T every Attorney at Law in ENGLAND and WALES (there ~~being~~ being 50,000) at 4l, each Attorney per Annum is 200,000l, the ~~Monies~~ Monies to be collected by the Collectors of the Window Tax, and paid by them into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Land Tax of and for every respective County, and they to pay the same into His Majesty's Exchequer.

THIS Tax to be collected every three Months, every Attorney refusing to pay, to be fined ten Shillings over and above the said Tax Money; and not to practice the Law until the said Tax-Money together with the Fine be paid.

EVERY Collector empowered to Seize as in like manner of the Window-Tax.

ALL Admittances of Attorneys to be called in to be Re-sealed that the Number of Attorneys may be known, which will raise a considerable Sum, either at one or two Guineas each as may be approved of.

EVERY Attorney refusing to bring in his Admittance, he or they to be fined 500l. to be levied upon his Goods, Chattles, Lands and Premises. Three Months may be allowed to bring in such Admittance.

THAT all Attorneys be admitted in the two Courts of Common Bench, and not to be allowed to use each others Name to the great Injury of the Public : And will prevent many Impositions of the Petty-Foggers.

THAT every Attorney to be admitted in the two Courts will raise a large Sum.

ALL Admittances of such Attorneys to be hung up in Print in the Public Office every Year to prevent the Practice of those Attorneys who have been struck off the Roll. That all Persons may have recourse to peruse the same uninterrupted.

AND if any Attorney or Attorneys be a Lodger, and the Master or Mistress of the House deny such Attorney when the Tax Collector shall come to the said House to collect the said Tax, and it being afterwards proved that the Attorney did Lodge in the said House when the Collector came to demand the said Tax, then and in such Case the House-keeper shall be obliged to pay the said Tax for such Attorney who is so denied, the House-keeper's Goods to be Seized for the same and Sold by the Collector for the Payment of the said Tax, if the Attorney or the Master of the House will not pay.

卷之四

A PROPOSAL made to raise 200,000l. per Annum by a small Tax. 300,000l. per Annum more without any Tax. And One Million more per Annum without any Tax.

THE first to raise the 200,000l. per Annum on the small Tax (is) that there being 50,000 Attorneys, each Attorney to pay 4l. per Annum, which will amount to 200,000l.

THE Sum of 300,000l. per Annum has not yet been declared how it may be raised. But when the Act is past to tax the Attorneys, then it will be made known. N. B. No Tax.

THE Proposal for raising One Million per Annum will also be made known when an Act be past for taxing the Attorneys.

N. B. No Tax for raising the One Million Yearly. All these will prove a National Good and enrich the Crown.